

Robson Resort Communities Honored at the 22nd Annual Eliant Homebuyers' Choice Awards

Phoenix, Ariz. (February 21, 2018) Robson Resort Communities earned multiple honors at the 2018 Annual Eliant Homebuyers' Choice Awards for its commitment to providing quality purchase and ownership experiences.

This national, prestigious awards program is based on the results of more than 128-thousand surveys which were administered to all recent homeowners from over 156 major homebuilders across the United States.

Based on this customer feedback, Robson Resort Communities was recognized in High Volume segments of the following categories:

- Purchase Experience
- Design Selection
- Overall First-Year Quality
- Design Representative of the Year – Brandee Tweten

In addition, Katie Thompson, Kelly Weese, Kim White, Kristen McDaniel, and Theresa Joiner represented Robson Resort Communities on the "Final Top 15 Winners" list for the Design Representative of the Year Award:

"It is an honor for Eliant to recognize our team with these distinctions for our strong dedication to providing the ultimate levels of quality for homebuyer satisfaction," said Matt Guelich, Senior Vice President of Construction, Robson Communities, Inc.

These honors reflect Robson Resort Communities' commitment to being an industry leader in customer service throughout the home buying process.

About Eliant

For more than thirty years, Eliant has been providing leading research to the new home industry and has long been recognized as the nation's leading provider of customer experience management services for U.S., Canadian, and Middle East building firms.

About Robson Resort Communities

Since 1972, the Phoenix-based Robson companies have been developing and building luxurious master-planned communities for active adults in Arizona & Texas. Today, more than 50,000 people call a Robson community home. Recognizing the Robson companies as a national leader in housing, the National Association of Homebuilders bestowed its coveted "55+ Builder of the Year" award to the Robson Resort Communities in 2017. Robson Multi-Family continues the commitment to providing the best housing and lifestyle experience in the luxury residential community market.

For more information, call 800-732-9949 or visit www.robson.com.